

CADY CARLSON DESIGNS --Helping Jamie & Daniel Tie the Knot

This couple came in with a few magazine photos, a loose diamond inherited from her mom's old jewelry, and a variety of smaller diamonds and extra yellow and white gold from her parents' wedding bands, which we turned into this one-of-a-kind engagement ring with matching "shadow" band.

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas!

I know – the leaves haven't even turned yet, but Christmas will be here before you know it, and now is the time to start thinking about custom anything for that special someone(s). Here are a couple of ideas:

This personalized iPhone 6 case offers an Art Deco aesthetic and allows for up to 4 characters in the upper right corner. Starting at $70, incl tax and delivery. Allow approx 4 weeks for manufacturing and shipping.

This clip-on 'gator key fob features nature's scariest creature, that can now attach to your pocket or purse and guard your keys! Starting at $42, incl tax and delivery. Allow approx 4 weeks for manufacturing and shipping.

“It Snakes a River”
handmade necklace created for the recent Oh, Tulsa!
show at Living Arts.
Sterling Silver. $175

In the News...

The 100th First Friday is quickly upon us, so if you are downtown the evening of October 2, stop by my display at the AHHA Gift Shop, 101 E Archer St.... I'm assisting my Granny, aka Dian Church, at her upcoming Art in the Square Show Saturday, October 3, at Utica Square in Tulsa. Her setup is just outside Starbucks if you'd like to stop by.... Through TyPros, I'm volunteering at Octoberfest's Corporate Night this year, so if you are there October 21, stop by one of the refreshment stations and I'll top you off.... Also, my “It Snakes a River” necklace was accepted into the juried Oh, Tulsa! Show at Living Arts on display during August.... Last but definitely not least, I created the first annual surprise “Thanks for Getting Me to Here Award.” The first recipient? Mrs. Betty Scott, owner/instructor at ATA Owasso, who helped me earn my Tae Kwon Do Black Belt. Her dedication to improving the lives of her students in a fun and safe atmosphere significantly contributed to my confidence and joy. She receives a sterling silver bracelet with traditional testing weapon charms hanging from a traditional long staff weapon. Thank you for everything, Mrs. Scott!
